

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to force their stations to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is a clear example of the dangers of media consolidation.

One of the reasons I am not supporting George Bush is his reluctance to rein in the conservative media. Sinclair's decision to air this obvious electioneering film is like thumbing their nose at our media regulations.

Sinclair's actions show why we need to strengthen media ownership rules, not weaken them. PLEASE INTERVENE now. Thank you.
